Spring 'Royal Academy of Dance' Ballet Exams

Every spring, DanceMakers participates in the R.A.D. examinations and presentations in ballet. Students have been selected to participate, and have been preparing with extra classes on Sundays. DanceMakers hires pianist Trevor McLain formerly from the National Ballet of Canada to play for these examinations. The examiner is a selected, highly trained adjudicator through the R.A.D. in London, England. Examiners come from all over the world - we have had the opportunity to host many examiners from Australia, England, Brazil, USA, South Africa, and Canada.

As the exam days are important and special days, regular classes at the studio may need to be cancelled for the event. Please stay posted for more information to come!
